

I am against any Federal Law or Regulation which would over-ride and weaken the State of Indiana's Telemarketing Do Not Call Law. This thing has worked perfectly, in conjunction with our non-published phone number, the only calls we get now are from firms whom we have given our number to, and probably now only average one call per week, rather than five or more per day that we were experiencing previously.

Sincerely,
Richard Motz